INDIANA EXTENSION HOMEMAKERS ASSOCIATION

FIRST TIMER FACTS

STATE WINNERS

2 State Winners are chosen in each district.

Each District Representative reports her winners to First Timer Chair.

The Chairman will correspond with winners.

Winners receive a $150 check from IEHA State Treasurer in April to early May.

State Treasurer sends check after receiving list of winners from First Timer Chair.

Winners should register for Conference and housing upon announcement of award at their District Meeting. The $150 award may be applied toward Conference expenses.

DISTRICT & COUNTY WINNERS

Not all districts and counties choose their own First Timers.

District and county winners do not receive money from the state organization.

Awards may vary depending upon the district or county.

District and county winners are not given special Conference seating.

They may be asked to stand for recognition from where they are seated.

It is the responsibility of the district or county to provide further recognition of these winners.

ALL FIRST TIMERS

First Timer ribbons to attach to the name badge are available at Conference headquarters.

Door banners are not allowed for winners at any level.

District First Timer Winners are due April, 2009 to:
