

READY...SET...KNIT!

IN FEBRUARY 2012, INDIANAPOLIS WILL WELCOME THE WORLD AS IT HOSTS SUPER BOWL XLVI. THE 8,000 SUPER BOWL VOLUNTEERS NEED YOUR CREATIVE TALENTS!

“SUPER SCARVES,” the initiative launched by the Indianapolis Super Bowl Host Committee (a not-for-profit), is looking for individuals who are interested in handcrafting scarves for the Super Bowl volunteers. We have found that volunteers really do make the difference when we host events. We are always indebted to them for their time, energy, and countless efforts to reach out and take care of visitors.

This personalized handcrafted gift will serve as a warm “thank you” for their service. It will also present an instant connection between the scarf creators and volunteers. Participating in the Super Scarves initiative gives those who cannot physically volunteer in 2012 an opportunity to get involved. This is your chance to play an important role in history!

Since your scarf will become part of the official volunteer uniform, please use the following approved colors and types of yarn:
